

I am a listener to K-Love in Austin, TX and find it to be a great community service.
It provides both uplifting music and balanced perspective on current events.
Austin is well-served to have such a strong radio station.